PROPHECY OF CLASS OF 1993

The year - 2018 - the place - Fruitvale, Texas.

Many of you may not know that Fruitvale is part of a large metropolitan area. It is here we find the owner of a worldwide chain of Brookshires, Traci Hudgins. However wealthy she is, she still chooses to work here in good old' Fruitvale.

Tonya Boyles and Rachelle Williams are still looking for a suitable mate and a job - maybe they should talk to Traci.

Angie Taylor and Jeremy Thompson finally got married. Angie has been the coach of the 2016 Olympic Basketball team and has now retired to coach pee wee basketball.

Wendy Taylor and Floyd Brown got married after they finally got their trailer livable.

As we move on down Highway 80 - now Interstate 80 - we find Roy Akins. He owns a welding shop in Grand Saline.

Turning north - Brian Goode has taken over Van veterinary Clinic, but still has to borrow money for gas.

The exact whereabouts of some of the class of 1993 is unknown, but their activities are very clear.

Jackie Coulter was named Ms. Olympia and editor of "SHAPE" magazine. She coaches power lifting on the side.

Mike "Vern" Risner never made it to college, but has a very lucrative chicken farm.

Kent Facklam joined the PGA in hopes of attracting lots of beautiful some. It worked all right, but he ran them off with his singing.

Cindy Love owns an "Offensive Driving School" and is the mayor of Fruitvale.

Greg Gothard and Mindy finally tied the knot. They own a large cattle ranch. We believe it may be the one on Highway 110.

Kelvin Barnhart and Stephanie Lewis got married, but the marriage is very Risky due to the fact that Ray lives with them. Kelvin is trying to find a truck that will run so Ray won't have a reason to stay.

Darrel Hunt married Amy. Their business, D&A Scrap Metal, is doing quite well on Cindy's wrecked cars.

Charlie Sizemore worked so hard being an office aide that he decided to be a high school principal. He was hired with the condition that no school be held on Wednesdays so he could play golf.

Some of the class of '93 moved way off. Mitzi Roberts is in New York City after a small part on "General Hospital." She was "killed off" the show because she was over-qualified due to working at the nursing home.

Jason Daley owns a chain of Pizza Hits in Africa.

Seems that there is one member that we can't find. Where could he be? Wait - there he is - James Hawkins is at a birthday party. His wife turned 65 today!

These are just predications - all of which are based on circumstantial evidence and our inability to see into the future.

Good luck, CLASS OF '93, in whatever you decide to pursue.
