Administration

The Fruitvale Board of Education: Standing are Carlos Pipes, Bill Adams-Vice President, Tommy Garrett-President, and Darren Smith. Seated are Mark Parkerson and Ronnie Abrams. They work long hours to try to make sure our students are getting the best education possible. Just bring it (whatever your problem) to the board and they will try to help you. Of course, you can also bring your thanks for a job well done and it would be greatly appreciated. You will notice below that we have given all the people on this page a "Blue Ribbon". We feel that they deserve one.

These three people occupy the "Big House" as it is sometimes called: Our Superintendent Stan Surratt, the Business Manager Susan McCann, and their secretary Tina Jones. Joyce Whatley the Counselor, Kim Pettiet the Nurse and Tim McGrady the computer technician work district wide whenever they are needed. As do Mid Johnson, the High School/Middle School Principal; Peggy Carnes, the Elementary Principal; Patsy Phillips, the High School/Middle School Secretary; and Helen Hudgins, the Elementary Secretary.

Bus Drivers, Maintenance, Custodians

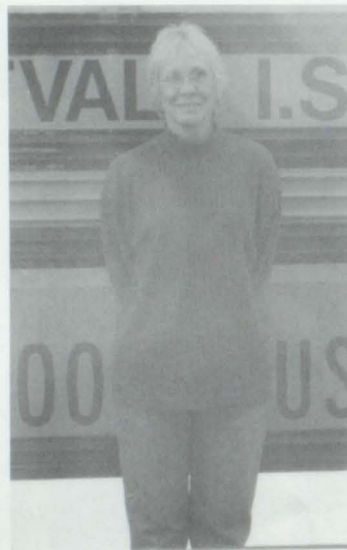

Mr. Dockery is cleaning up after the students as they leave for the day.

Mr. Leland pushing a mop

Brother Ray fixing one of his many loose screws.

Mrs. Susan enjoys driving the bus every morning and afternoon.

Mr. Joslin, one of our custodians, visits with William Cline.

Mr. Godfrey is one of the hardest working men we have.

Mrs. Greta smiling for the camera. She also drives a bus in the afternoon.

Elementary custodians, Dean and Angie, stop long enough for us to take their picture for the yearbook.

Cafeteria

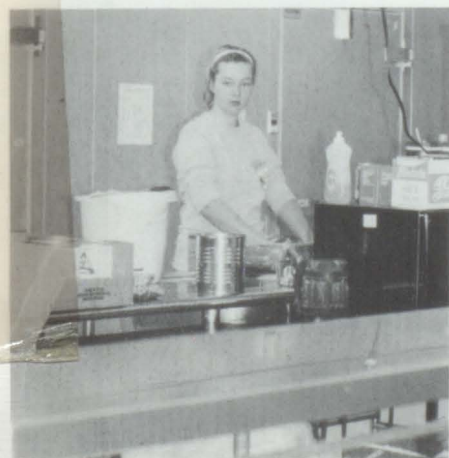

Mrs. Barbara with a big smile. I wonder what she is thinking about?

Greta entertains Mr. Johnson while he eats lunch.

Mrs. Earline takes a break after a hard days work.

Peggy; always happy and always trying to spread joy to others.

One of the newest employees in the Cafeteria, Loretta.

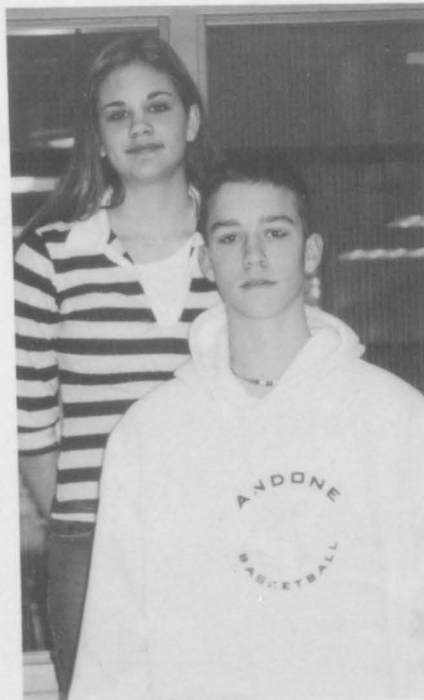

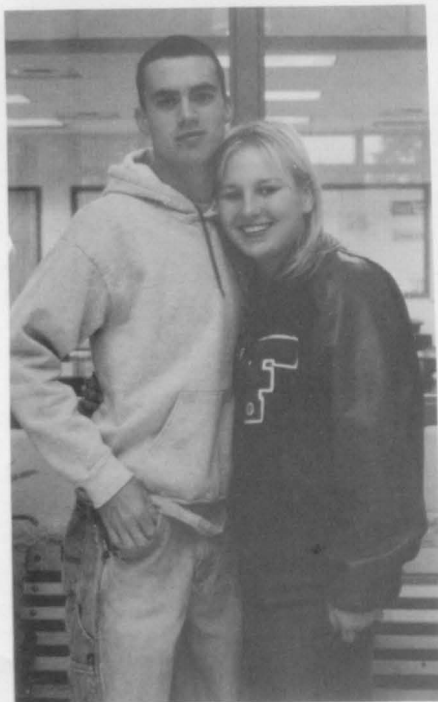

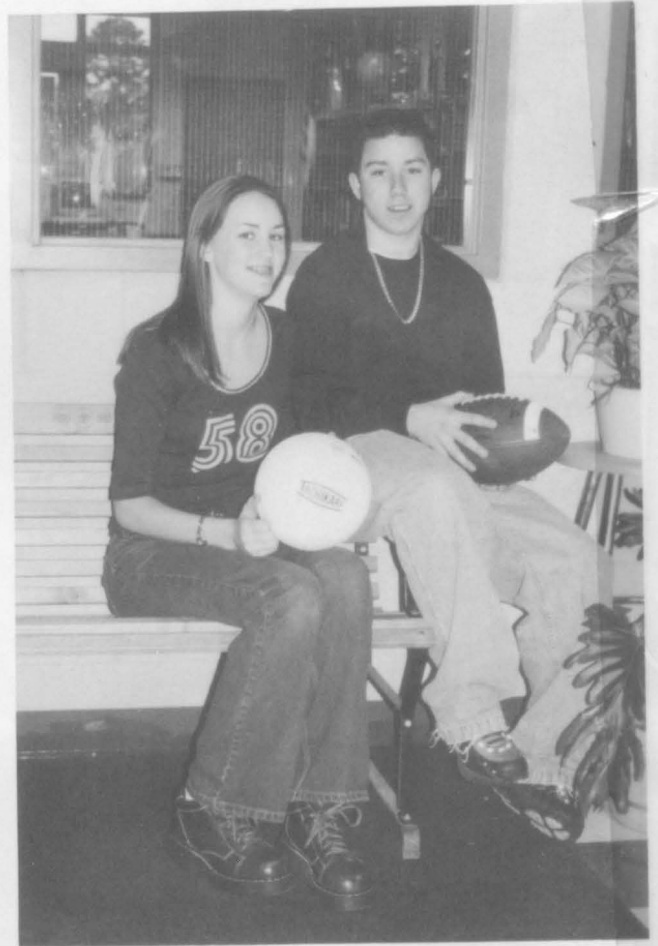

Hey, Julie! Julie Littlejohn unpacking some of the groceries.

A TRIBUTE TO WORLD WAR II

Mrs. Bain's class made a flag to honor those who lost their lives in WWII.

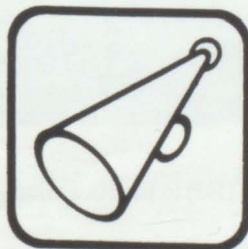

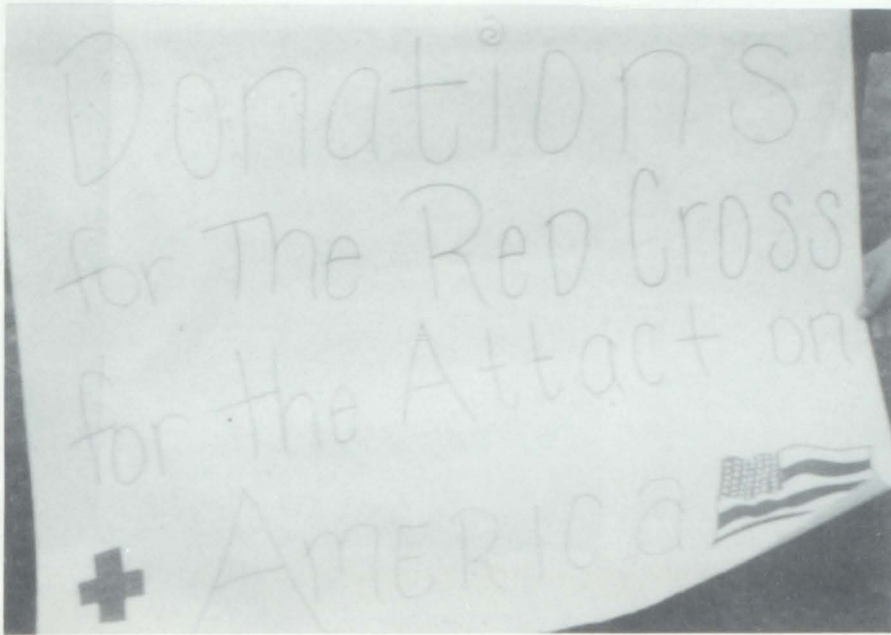

Veterans attending the WW II program honored our flag by leading in the Pledge of Allegiance. This program sponsored by The Student Council.

Ms. Byrd introduced President F.D. Roosevelt (played by Bob Pickens) as he addressed congress (our student body) regarding the attack on Pearl Harbor and the United States declaring war on Japan.

9-11 DEDICATION

We the students and faculty would like to dedicate our 2002 yearbook to all affected by the attack on The United States of America September 11, 2001. We were unable to comprehend that anyone could be so unfeeling as to deliberately attack and kill that many people. It is sad when one person can control so many with hate for anyone who doesn't share his beliefs. There are no words that could adequately describe someone who encourages others in this type of behavior. The Yearbook Staff is using this page to encourage everyone to never forget that the United States of America needs our prayers, our dedication and our support. There are many ways we can support our country, by having a positive attitude about the good things and working patiently to help change the not so good things. In our world a little rain must fall, but we can use our umbrellas and still be cheerleaders for our country. Just bring it (your patriotism) with you everywhere you go. The students showed their patriotism by sponsoring a fund raiser for the American Red Cross.

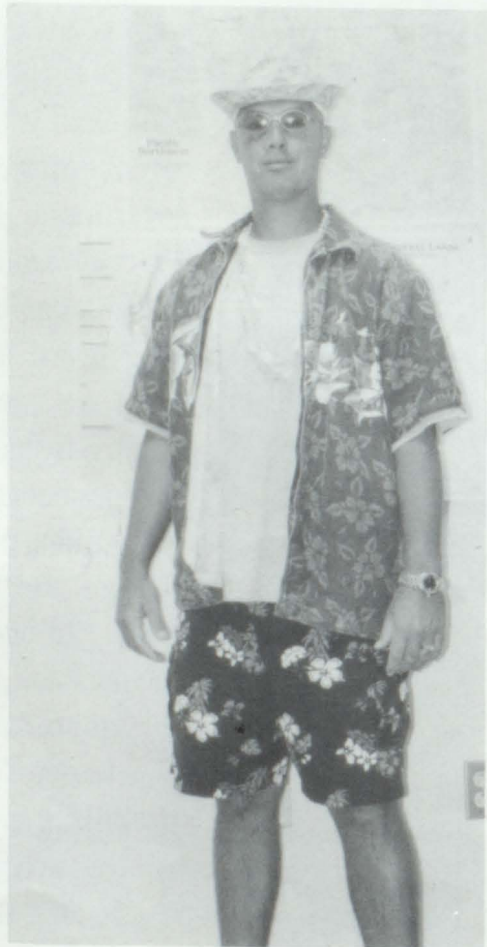

Attention

Mrs. Bain and Mrs. Goodson get the students attention on Hawaiian Day.

Mrs. Prater and Mrs. Fisher hatch their schemes against Coach Pickens

Jennifer and Delia are ready for anything the other team has in mind.

Around and

Some people are camera shy, but I don't know why. In any classroom on any given day you will find some students engrossed in their lessons, while others are talking, and some are pretending to be interested in their book while they nap. Amanda is totally shocked by something someone did or said. Jammie and Mrs. Carnes pose in Mrs. Carnes beautifully decorated room.

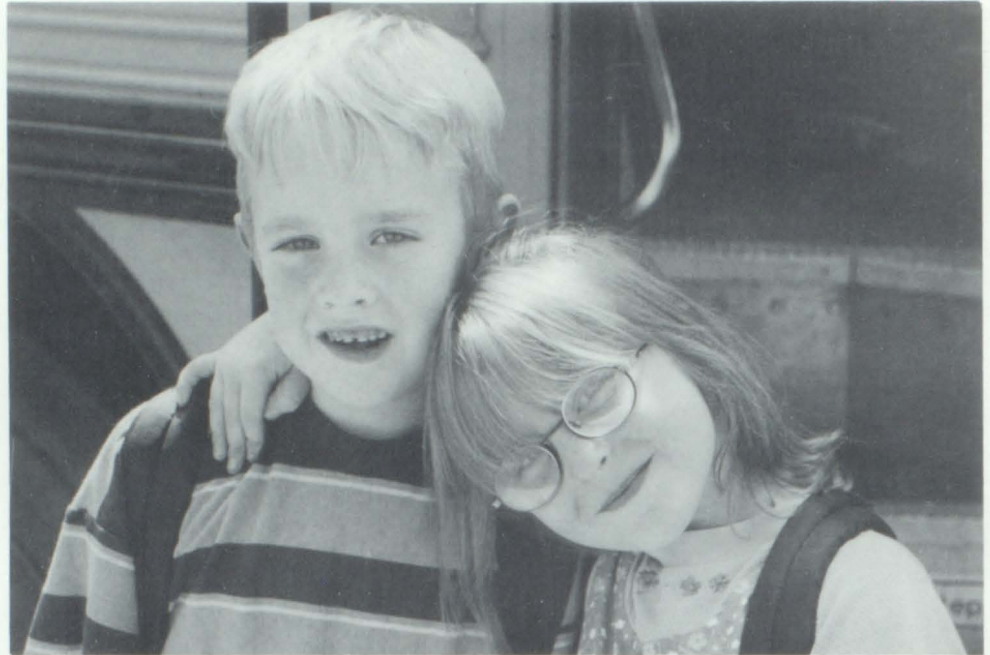

About

The torch of victory is held aloft while everyone cheers. As you can tell it is Hillbilly Day at Fruitvale High. Some students eat while others pose for the camera. Bre looks really good in her hat.

ELEMENTARY FUN!!

Dianne and a cute little blonde boy. They are probably the couple that stays together all through high school! What do you want to bet?

Joseph Morgan takes his homework home to finish, maybe one day he will be a college professor.

Dillion looks a little scared as we surprised him with a picture getting off the bus. Sorry, Dillion....

Ian McCann carts around the softball equipment for the lady cats. We are so proud of him!! You're doing great Ian, hang in there!!

Stephen Williams looks like he may want to take over the school one day, maybe in about 15 years!

Congratulations

IN SUMMARY

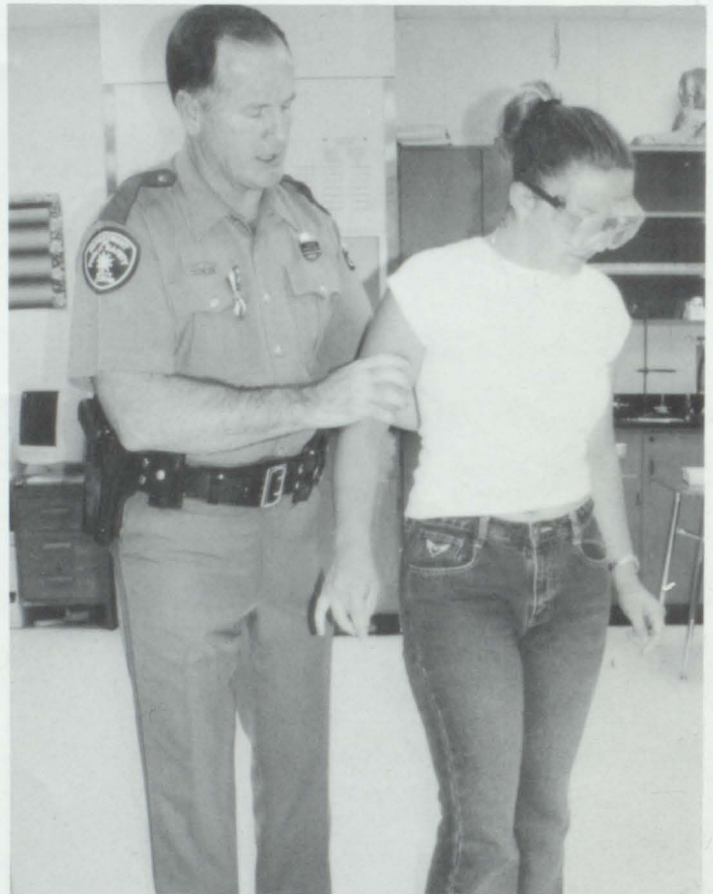

The school year is rapidly coming to a close. Everyone is always eager for the "End of School" to arrive. Even though we look forward to the last day, there is always a touch of nostalgia for the past year. When school begins this fall some of the faces will be different and some will be the same. Everyone starts with a clean slate at the beginning of school, so you have a chance at a whole new persona. A whole new crop of freshmen will arrive and think they have to start out and make their mark on high school. The upper classmen will soon disabuse them of that idea. And of course the Fifth graders move over to the High School Campus and suddenly believe no rules apply to them. Some of the old faces will be missed, but there may be applause that some are gone.

The Sheriff's Department came after Mr. Surratt last year when he didn't raise enough money for Muscular Dystrophy. After that experience, he passed the buck to Mr. Johnson this year. Let him get arrested, must be his philosophy.

A perfect picture of ??????? Is it boredom, end of school year blues, or end of girl friend blues? Although it could be "Mrs. Fisher" blues, she seems to think that all the students have to do is pose for pictures and keep her happy when they had rather be pigging out in the cafeteria.

Amber Smith is being helped by a state trooper as she wears goggles that illustrate how the world around her would look if she were under the influence of alcohol. Other students also tried the goggles, and they were amazed at the effect on their equilibrium. Who would want to look at the world like that.

e n d u r i n g FREEDOM

Tuesday, September 11, 2001, will be remembered as a tragic day that changed the world. That morning, a plot, masterminded by terrorist Osama bin Laden and the al-Qaeda network, was put into action. Two hijacked commercial airliners were flown into New York City's World Trade Center Towers, ultimately causing their collapse. Immediately following the incident, another hijacked airliner crashed into one side of the Pentagon in Washington, D.C, and a fourth plane crashed in Pennsylvania. Thousands of lives were lost, citizens were terrified and the world was in shock.

Following that mournful day the United States experienced anthrax scares, continued security threats and the reality of war. Despite the horror, fear and heartache, U.S. citizens united and their patriotic spirit soared. President Bush promised: "We will not tire, we will not falter, we will not fail." Through that statement and the remarkable sense of national pride exuded by U.S. citizens, it became evident that no threat, great or small, could deter the United States resolve for enduring freedom.

Ailing airlines urge citizens to defy terrorists' attempts to disrupt lives by reboarding airplanes.

Thousands of people world-wide donate blood and volunteer their services to aid U.S. recovery.

An overwhelming spirit of unity and national pride arises out of the smoldering ashes and human devastation from the September 11 attacks on the United States.

america's HEROES

- Michael Benfante and John Cerqueira, employees on the 81st floor of the World Trade Center, selflessly carried wheelchair-bound Tina Hanson down 68 flights of stairs to safety.
- New York City Fire Department Chaplain Father Mychal Judge, lost his life at Ground Zero while offering last rights to another victim.
- While attempting to rescue others, 343 firemen and 60 police officers died during the attack on the World Trade Center Towers.
- Army Chief Warrant Officer Craig Sincock, despite losing his wife at the Pentagon, offered assistance to those he could aid at the scene. On Sept. 12, Sincock began acting as a grief counselor for others who had lost family members at the site.
- Passengers Todd Beamer, Tom Burnett, Mark Bingham and Jeremy Glick joined to overcome hijackers aboard Flight 93 that crashed in Pennsylvania. Beamer's final statement "Let's roll," has become a symbolic phrase since then.

Canine rescue teams help firefighters search for survivors among the wreckage.

U.S. troops dedicate their lives to preserving freedom and keeping America safe.

Citizens and communities across the country proudly display patriotic decor.
