Antic Spring By Robert Nail
On a spring day, six teenagers are off to a picnic. There is Ginger, earnest and overbearingly sunny; Robert, the sensitive one, impressed only by poetry (or ants, as a hilarious final scene proves); Blossom, the exuberant and idiotic teenager; Sam and Gwendolyn, the lovers who live-in thirty minutes-a life of adolescent fickleness, ranging from funny to young soulfulness; and Elbert, the little brother who looks with noisy criticism on their actions and suffers their company only for food likely to be served. The relations of these, oddly assorted six, put to the trials and tribulations of a picnic, result in situations of merriment and in dialogue flippant, fast and rich in performance possibilities.

What it's all about?

"This group of gifted students worked so hard and impressed me so much by placing at the Destination Imagination Fair this year. As a first year team it is almost unheard of in this competition. They used their problem solving abilities in so many different ways to go above and beyond what was expected. Einstein watch out-- this gifted group is incredible."
