

Mr. Masterson

Mr. Masterson graduated from Tarleton State University in 2000 and began his career as a Life-Skills teacher in Edgewood for two years. He then came to Fruitvale in 2002 and was a PE teacher and coach for four years, before heading to Wills Point and once again was a Life-Skills teacher for two more years. He returned to Fruitvale to become the junior high math teacher for four years. During his four years of service to Fruitvale, he pursued and received a Masters in Educational Leadership from Dallas Baptist University in 2013.

Mr. Masterson lives in Fruitvale with his wife, Amanda and two children, Luke and Emma. He loves to spend time with his family, at the beach, and enjoys going to Texas Ranger and Dallas Stars games.

