

Fruitvale ISD is canceling classes and events for this day!

©The 2024 total eclipse path through Texas

2024 Eclipse facts for Fruitvale

(32.6831852° N, 95.8032979° W)

Partial eclipse starts:
Total eclipse starts:
Mid-eclipse:
Total eclipse ends:
Partial eclipse ends:

12:24:36 PM
1:42:03 PM
1:44:09 PM
1:46:14 PM
3:04:10 PM

SAFETY FIRST!

Never look at the Sun without ISO or CE-rated eclipse solar glasses, sunglasses are not safe for looking at the sun. During the 4 minutes of totality, this is optional, but it is better to be safe.

Wear Sunscreen! If you are staying out for long periods of time.

What to Expect:

- Population Influx
- Extreme demand for local resources (especially along travel routes)
- Food (possible shortages)
- Fuel (possible shortages)
- Lodging (Hotels, RV Parks, Camping, State Parks, Bubba's pasture, Airbnb, VRBO)
- Stress to local infrastructure
- Communication Challenges
- Cellular, Wi-Fi, 911)
- Parking issues
- Sanitation issues
- Travel (increased traffic, accidents, hazards)
- Water
- People pulling over on all roads

Eclipse day is
Monday, April 8, 2024!
The 2024 eclipse is a total eclipse for those in the path, and
Fruitvale is in the path of totality!
•Duration of totality will be
4m 10.7s
2024 Eclipse facts for Fruitvale
(32.6831852° N, 95.8032979° W)

